Serving the Affordable Housing Industry

Clients appreciate our friendly and caring real estate team of professionals, who are timely, efficient and responsive. In addition, clients also benefit from having access to specialized resources across the Firm who provide solutions for unique business issues.

“Eide Bailly has a diverse affordable housing client base—which allows them to have in-depth knowledge of our industry. They assist many clients with similar issues and are then able to share ideas with us, which makes our company better.”
